Benefits Hotline for Seniors

Seniors and people with disabilities are among the most vulnerable citizens of Georgia. Through a grant from the National Council on Aging, Georgia Legal Services Program has set up a hotline to help this vulnerable population apply for and keep benefits such as food stamps, Medicaid, Medicare savings programs, extra help with prescription drug costs and Energy assistance. The program is being carried out with help from community partners all over the state. 1-888-632-6332

Benefits Checkup

Benefitscheckup.org is a service developed and maintained by the National Council on Aging. The site is a comprehensive web-based service that matches benefits programs to seniors with limited income and resources.

How do I get help in my home or neighborhood?

Call the Aging and Disability Resource Connection (ADRC) at 866-552-4464, Option 2, to speak with a specialist about available resources in your community. Many services are free, and some may require payment. ADRC specialists can help you identify programs make help affordable.

The Aging and Disability Resource Connection is a collaborative effort of the Administration on Aging (AoA) and the Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS) designed to streamline access to long-term care. The ADRC initiative is part of a nationwide effort to restructure services and supports of older adults and younger persons with disabilities.

Adult Protective Services

Adult Protective Services (APS) is the state entity charged with investigating all reports of abuse, neglect, and/or exploitation of older persons (65+) or an adult (18+) with a disability who do not reside in long-term care facilities pursuant to the Disabled Adults and Elder Persons Protection Act, O.C.G.A. §§ 30-5-1, et seq

Concerned about residents of nursing homes or other long-term care facilities?

The Georgia Long-Term Care Ombudsman Program can help you. A Long-Term Care Ombudsman seeks to improve the quality of life for residents of long-term care facilities. These facilities include nursing homes, personal care homes and assisted living facilities. In addition, Ombudsmen serve residents who lie in community living arrangements (CLAs) and intermediate care facilities for persons with mental retardation (ICF/MRs).

The Office of the State Long-Term Care Ombudsman is administratively attached to the Department of Human Services, Division of Aging Services (DAS). The office seeks resolution of problems and advocates for the rights of residents of long-term care facilities with the goal of enhancing the quality of life and care for residents.
